

EFFECTIVE SEMINAR/CONFERENCE MARKETING

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Making Direct Mail Work for You to get Inquiries and Customers

- How to use direct mail for two-step marketing
- Using envelope mailings for inquiry generation
- How to increase the effectiveness of a self-mailer for inquiry generation
- What to include in your direct mail follow-up letter to an inquiry
- How to use direct mail to market with a memory to your customers
- Six variables to increase the impact of your direct mail packages
- Effective headlines for your direct mail envelopes
- Twenty-three ways to increase the impact of your cover letter
- How to use direct mail for multi-party marketing
- How to capture database names for direct mail follow-up after a seminar/conference
- How to key code your direct mail more effectively
- How to use direct mail to convert more first-time customers into repeat attendees
\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

2. How to Build a Highly Responsive Permission Based Email Database

- How to get more people to register online
- Four compelling reasons why you need your customer's email address
- How to use search engine marketing for email inquiry generation
- How to improve the conversion rate at your website landing page
- How to use popup screens and qualifying techniques to improve the quality of your email database
- How to use Google ad words and how to control the pay-per-click budget
- Key variables to track with your analytics software
- How to use permission emails to increase open rates and click-through rates
\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

3. How to Use Database Segmentation to Build Response Rates

- Segmentation options for database marketing
- How to capitalize on the four generations in today's seminar market
- How to use geographical segmentation
- Effective use of recency, frequency, and monetary value to determine marketing priorities
\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

4. Email Marketing Promotion and Design to get More Clicks

- How to capitalize on the "Welcome to Your Organization" email
- How to increase click-through rates on email offers
- Factors that determine the recipient's willingness to open and read your email
- Selecting the optimal email timing and delivery
- How to use pitch versus teaser subject lines.
- The pros and cons of text versus HTML
- How to comply with the spam laws and assess your spam score
- Strategies/techniques to get past the spam filters
- How to use the early bird discount for email marketing

- Testing strategies so you can increase your email click-through rate
- Optimal frequency of contact for effective email marketing
- Eight steps for email quality control
- When do you unsubscribe a person in your email database?
- Email design and layout recommendations
- How to reactivate the deadwood on your email database

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

5. How to Use External Databases to Complement your House File and to Build Attendance

- Growth strategies and external databases
- How the list market works
- Database categories and how you can effectively use them
- Email marketing with outside lists
- A six-step process for selecting outside databases
- Selection options to get more responses when renting outside lists
- How to get more mileage out of a database broker
- How to turn your list into an income-producing asset
- Effective use of merge-purge to find multi-buyers and the best list
- How to target your audience using multi-list databases

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

6. Optimal Timing to Reach your Attendance Goals

- Selecting dates, days, and times that are best for seminars and conferences
- The best and worst months and days to hold your programs
- The best months to promote your seminar
- Ten variables that affect your promotional lead time
- Optimal lead time for programs based upon length

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

7. Marketing Plans and Offers to Close the Sale

- The impact of multiple offers on your promotional response rate
- Recommended timetable for events so people can book
- How to use "save the date" strategies to begin enrollment building
- How to get inquiries to register now
- How to get a commitment from prospective attendees early in the promotional cycle
- Follow-up promotion options to inquiries and customers
- How to use team attendance to build your class enrollment
- Identifying and capitalizing on your double-down day
- How to use a regret email to guide future promotions

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

8. Financial Issues to Improve the Bottom Line

- Pricing considerations so you can maximize your revenue
- How to build trust so that you can increase your price
- How to use price to build credibility
- Effective utilization of the psychological price barriers
- Benchmarking best practices on marketing percentages for enrollment maximization
- How to use cost base pricing

- How to eliminate buyers regret or buyers remorse after the sale

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

9. How to Use Search Engine Optimization (SEO) to Make your Website a Strategic Marketing Tool

- How to boost your website's natural organic ranking
- Search engine optimization for top-ranked organic results
- How to use meta tags that catch the spiders
- Alt tags, site maps, links, and site architecture to increase your natural ranking
- How to capitalize on directory programs
- Nine special ways to get more hits at your website to build your database and website revenue

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

10. Website Promotion through Viral and Benefit Marketing

- How to use "word-of-mouth"
- How to use quizzes and viral marketing together
- How to capitalize on viral marketing in a direct mail environment
- Using gift certificates and on-site training to increase website conversions
- How to use a "training plan" to make your web site sticky
- Podcast and RSS feeds to provide information to customers
- Website metrics you should be using to assess your success

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

11. How to Get More Leads / Bookings from Ads and Telephone Marketing

- Recommendations on space ads to get inquiries
- How to integrate telephone and email marketing
- How to complement email and telephone marketing with direct mail
- How to build and use a telemarketing script

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

12. Using Copy that Builds Rapport and Empathy so that Recipients Respond

- Copyrighting recommendations so that prospects read your promotions
- How to use the active voice in your emails and on your website
- How to capitalize on the four great copy motivators
- Know when to use long copy versus short copy
- How to capitalize on individual communication styles
- Twenty-one general copyrighting tips to lift response rates

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

13. How to Overcome Objections to Get People to Register Now

- The nine most common objections to registering and how to overcome them
- How to build credibility with your advisory board
- Capitalizing on clearing houses to build your credibility
- Using freelance organizers to build trustworthy conference programs
- Finding a co-sponsor to build trust in your events
- How to create a title/subject line that grabs the prospect's attention
- How to turn your exhibitor prospectus into a marketing masterpiece

- How to use your program agenda to get people to register
- Effective use of networking opportunities, and speaker bios in your promotional marketing
- How to get testimonials and use them more effectively to sell your seminars/conferences
- Effective use of photos and color along with winning shapes in your promotions
\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

14. Finding the Ideal Venue for your Event

- The influence of your cover on enrollment
- How to select the perfect place for your meeting or convention
- Capitalizing on the best states and cities
- Negotiating hotel contracts that complement your seminar conference delivery image
\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

15. Program Implementation and Evaluation

- Nine key questions to evaluate a program failure
- Marketing questions you should be asking on the evaluation form
- When and how to use online evaluation strategies and techniques
- How to use telephone follow up for evaluation and future course promotion
\(back to On-Site Topics page\)

16. Effective Marketing and Selling of In-House Seminars

- Five reasons you should present courses in-house
- Five ways to generate in-house inquiries or leads
- Twenty practical tips on how to sell to potential customers
- Six alternative pricing approaches to help you maximize net income from in-house training
- Three critical post-sale activities to ensure course presentation success
- Three post-seminar follow-up recommendations
- Nine reasons/justifications to make an in-house callback or follow-up

\(back to On-Site Topics page\)